

SUNDAY SUBJECTS

At Park Congregational church preaching at the morning service by the pastor, Rev. Dr. S. H. Howe.

The subject at the Christian Science service Sunday morning in the Thayer building will be Substance.

At Christ Episcopal church, Holy Communion, 8 a. m. service and sermon, 10:30; church school, 11; evening prayer, 7:30.

At the First Congregational church, Rev. G. A. Bailey will preach at the morning service upon The Temptation of Jesus.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd, Universalist—Service at 10:30 a. m. preaching by Rev. Charles A. Northrop. Sunday school at noon.

At the Greenville Congregational church, Sunday morning, the pastor will preach on Confession. The Sunday school will meet at 12 o'clock.

At the Holiness Mission, No. 87 Main street, praise and prayer service 10 a. m. Bible class and Sunday school at 2 p. m. Preaching at 3 and 7:30 p. m.

At Trinity Episcopal church there will be Holy Communion at 9:30 a. m. Morning service and sermon at 10:30 and evening service at 7:30. Sunday school at noon.

At the A. M. E. Zion church, preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. D. Francis, 11 a. m. Sunday school at noon. Evening service, 7:45 o'clock. Subject: A Completed Life.

At St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Rev. William H. Smith, rector. Holy Communion, 9:30 a. m.; morning prayer, 10:30 a. m.; church school, 12 noon; evening service, 7:30 p. m.

At Taftville Congregational church, Morning: Lenten sermon, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Evening: Lenten address, Thinking Good of One Another. Singing led by Miss Young's class. Cornet solos by William Martin.

At Mount Calvary Baptist Church, Rev. J. S. Blake, pastor. Service at 11 a. m. Subject: A Dead Lion. Sunday school at noon. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. Topic, Patience and Its Reward. Service at 7:45 p. m. Subject: Angelology.

At the First Baptist church, George Henry Strouse, minister, morning theme: Things Nearing a Climax. Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Young People's service at 6:45. Evening theme: Great Heroes in the Mission Fields of Africa.

At the Central Baptist Church, Rev. A. F. Furkiss, pastor. Morning subject: A World Vision. Service in Italian, 10:45. Rev. J. W. Carlevalle. Sunday school and City Men's Bible class at noon. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Evening service, 7:30. Topic, Patience and Its Reward. Service at 7:45 p. m. Subject: Angelology.

At Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. A. Legg, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30. Sermon: The New Call of the Church. Communion. Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Epworth League at 6:30. Evening service at 7:30. Sermon: The Business World and Its New Interest in Religion.

Famous Lyric Soprano

Mma. Lydia Lipkowska, the well-known lyric soprano, with her marvelous hat of pearls, valued at $10,000, which she has brought with her from Europe. Mma. Lipkowska has just returned to America after several years in Russia, where she endured many hardships at the hands of Bolsheviks. She was formerly with the Metropolitan Opera Company and later with the Boston Opera and the Chicago Opera.

BUILDING

Cover Yourself

By Covering Your Steam Pipes With ASBESTOS SECTIONAL STEAM PIPE COVERING. Save the price of covering by saving the coal in your bin. Now is the time to apply this covering, and you can find all sizes in stock at

THE PECK McWILLIAMS CO. Central Wharf.

WILLIAM C. YOUNG

Successor to STETSON & YOUNG CARPENTER and BUILDER. Best work and materials at right prices by skilled labor. Telephone 50 West Main St.

HOTELS

American House

D. MORRISSEY, Prop. First-class Garage Service Connected. Phone 84th Street

DEL-HOFF HOTEL

EUROPEAN PLAN HAYES BROS., Props. Telephone 1227 25-28 Broadway

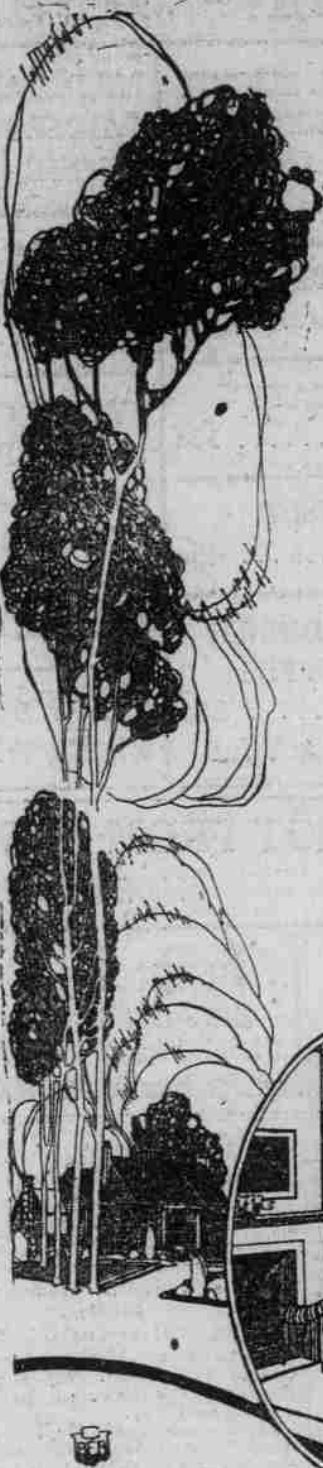

There is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bulletin for business results.

VICTOR DEALERS

Have you heard the new Records? Some very attractive ones, this month, in both Columbia and Victor lists. To come and hear them does not obligate you to buy them.

COLUMBIA DEALERS

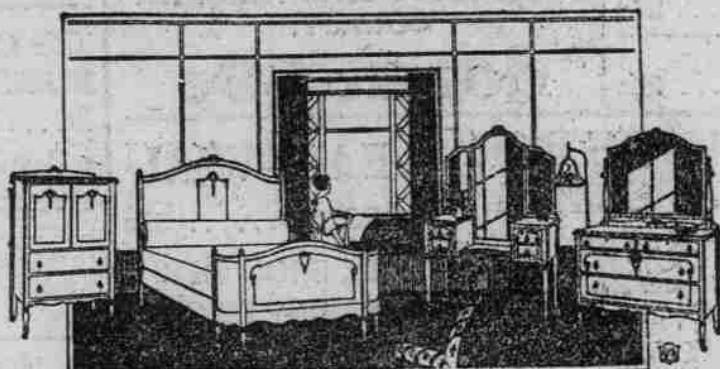

NEW FURNITURE DESIGNS FOR SPRING ON EXHIBITION NOW

Suites in Cane and Mahogany

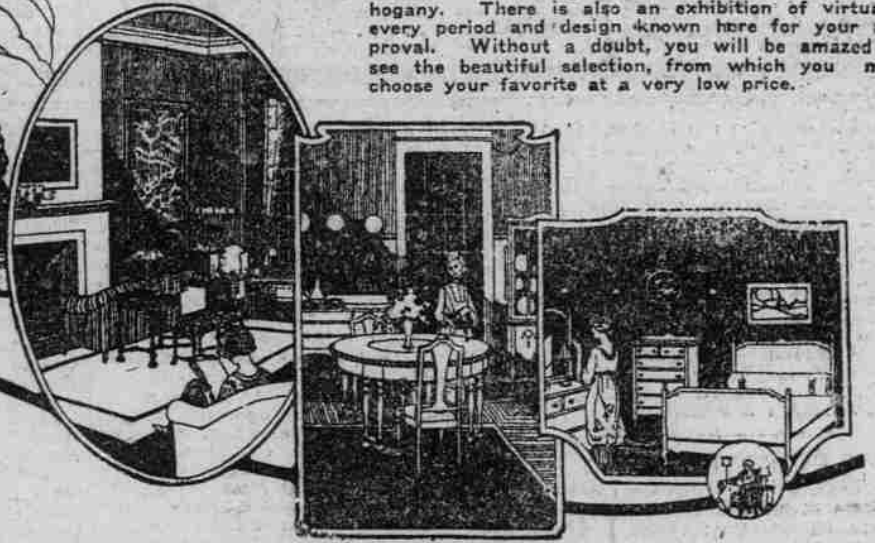

Our extensive display of Living Room Suites in cane and mahogany, in various upholstery, including everything that is new for Spring, is now here for your approval, in addition to the large stock of over-stuffed and leather Living Room Furniture, and prices are most moderate, consistent with the fine quality merchandise we sell.

It Is a Real Pleasure to Own a Bed Room Suite Like This

The Suite illustrated above is but one of the many dainty, yet practical Bed Room Suites that we are showing in American Walnut and Mahogany. There is also an exhibition of virtually every period and design known here for your approval. Without a doubt, you will be amazed to see the beautiful selection, from which you may choose your favorite at a very low price.

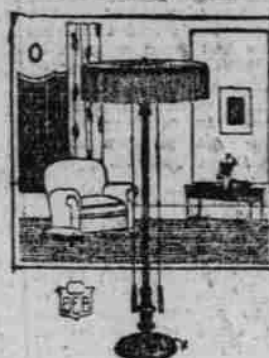

Library Tables That Have a Charm All Their Own

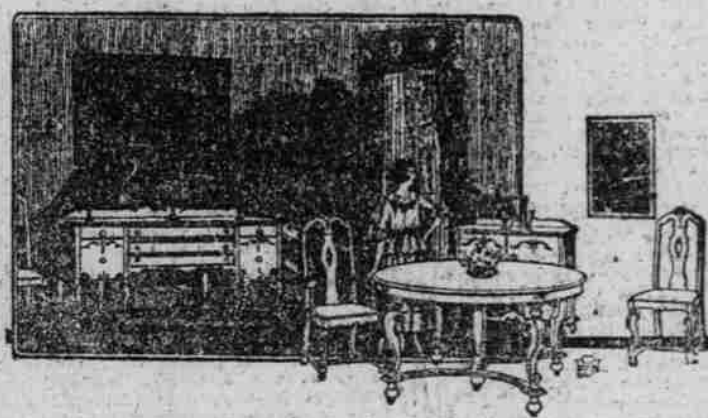

The Library Table that finds a place in the home of a discriminating person is more than just a table—it is chosen for its artistic design and its graceful lines of beauty as well as its utility. The very widest range of selection in oak, mahogany and beautiful American walnut awaits you here.

New Designs in Floor Lamps

When you choose a Lamp at this store, you can be certain that you are making your selection from only the best styles at prices that mean real values.

The Very Best in Dining Room Furniture

It is absolutely impossible to give you even a faint idea of the beautiful designs that we are showing in Dining Room Suites. Every period is represented. All finishes and woods are here: Mahogany, American Walnut, Fumed Oak, Golden Oak, Jacobean Oak, in the style which will suit best the surroundings in which they are to be placed, may be chosen from our large and varied stock.

WHY NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OUR EASY TERMS TO FURNISH YOUR HOME?

The Plaut-Cadden Co.

Established 1872

135-143 MAIN STREET

NORWICH, CONN.

WESTMINSTER

The heavy rain of Friday night and the blizzard of the next day again made roads quite impassable in most directions, and kept people at home Sunday in most cases, as the going was not safe for man or beast. Nevertheless a small number gathered at the parsonage for worship of God at the usual hour. The pastor read the account of the temptations of Christ, talking on the subject of Temptations and How to Meet Them.

The home prayer circles Wednesday, March 17, have the subject Christian Internationalism in the Relation of U. S. A. to Turkey. Bible references, Heb. 11; 32, and 12: 2, 1 Cor. 16: 9.

The communion of the Lord's supper is postponed to Easter Sunday at Westminster.

William Johnson has recovered from an acute attack of illness.

Mrs. Columbus Smith is again improving after a recent relapse.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann have been spending a few days with their children at Rest-a-While. They returned to New York Tuesday.

Mrs. Plafuge, who has been for some weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Smith, at Brookside, has returned to her home in New York.

Frank Koch of New York is visiting the Rosenzweigs.

Miss Esther Kimball, teacher at Gayhead school, was called home last Thursday on account of the serious illness of her mother in Pomfret, returning Tuesday afternoon and resuming teaching Wednesday.

James H. Lathrop, state treasurer, in his present state work has had to traverse some portion of between 40 and 50 rural routes and reports that of these but one, Suffield, has had uninterrupted service, and there the carrier had covered much of his route on snowshoes considerable of the winter.

Several days ago a chimney in the house of Mrs. E. W. Coulter burned out in the middle of the forenoon. Following soon after the destruction of the Benjamin Davies house, the flames leaping from the mouth of the chimney caused some apprehension, but were soon controlled.

Supervisor Greer visited some of the schools of town last week Thursday.

On account of weather and road and the illness of its president, the Buell union, Canterbury W. C. T. U. did not call its usual meeting Wednesday.

Canterbury Green church Sunday morning in spite of cold and snowdrifts. The communion service was postponed and will be held next Sunday, the 14th.

Mrs. Jennie Burdick is still under the doctor's care.

Ruby Babcock, who has been ill several weeks with grip and complications, is improving slowly.

Mrs. William Miller returned home from Moosup Wednesday.

While chopping in the woods recently, Hart Goff cut his foot. He is able to get about, however.

James Lathrop of Hartford was a visitor in town this week, the guest of his former neighbor, James Appleby. A cotillion social was held at Mrs. Herr's on Hyde street Monday evening, having been postponed from Saturday. All who ventured through the snow reported an enjoyable time. William O. Barker is again entertaining his brother, Charles Barker, of New York.

Among children reported ill are Julia Nelson, with bronchitis, and Webster Walnwright, who has a severe cold.

LEDYARD

A special town meeting was held at Ledyard church Wednesday afternoon. It was a very pleasant afternoon but it was not accepted yet. Miss Mabel Wilcox will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 o'clock.

Rev. M. D. Fuller's morning subject at the Baptist church to the Juniors is Paying a Debt and to the Seniors a New Duty. The Young People's meeting at 6:15 will be conducted by the pastor. At the vestry service at 7 the gospel will be spoken and sung by the pastor.

Rev. J. B. Aldrich will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning on Paul's Manner of Speech. Miss Isabella Robertson leads the Epworth league meeting at 6. Preaching service at 7.

The republican caucus to elect delegates to the state and congressional district convention in New Haven was held Thursday evening. Robert J. Guy was chairman and R. R. Gardner clerk.

L. M. Carpenter and William Johnston were elected delegates. The town committee appointed is L. M. Carpenter, chairman, L. G. Buckingham, Leif Johnson, John Potts, W. B. Montgomery, Joseph Roode, Charles Latham, Robert Wilbur and Louis Gingras.

The amount received at the supper at the Congregational vestry Thursday night was $65.

William McNicol has cut the wood on the island just below Norman's bridge and 60 sled loads of wood drawn by two horses have been brought down the Ashland river on the ice, the loads traveling over the channel. D. D. Tracy, who has lived in that vicinity for 60 years, says he never has known such a feat as that before on Ashland river. In every winter even at the coldest periods skaters avoid the channel.

A number of additional outrages are reported to have taken place in various parts of Ireland last night. Police sergeant Nazer was shot dead and Constable Doyle was wounded at Rathkeale, 17 miles southwest of Limerick.

Station Agent C. L. Fitch is expected to take a trip to Jacksonville, Fla., soon on a visit to his son, Herbert Fitch, and family.

Albert Patterson was a caller in New London Thursday evening.

It is reported that with the coming of good weather there will be plenty of work for the employees of the Norfolk shipyard. A large part will probably be repair work. It is expected that five menhaden steamers owned by Hays & Anderson of New York will be brought here to receive a thorough overhauling. This work was expected to start several weeks ago but was hindered by the severe weather.

The ferryboat Nathan Hale arrived here Thursday and was hailed out on the marine ways for repairs. The state of Maine has purchased the boat and will change the name to Governor

King, in honor of the first governor of Maine.

Edward Duchette of Oswego, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Duchette of the village.

Edgar Ashbey is serving on the jury of the superior court at New London.

The republican caucus was held on Thursday evening in the town hall at Pomfret Bridge.

Edward Anderson has returned from a visit at Monson, Mass.

JEWETT CITY

Rev. Clinton Andrews of Oxford, Conn., is expected to preach at the Congregational church Sunday morning.

Mr. Andrews has been called by this church to become its pastor, but has not accepted yet. Miss Mabel Wilcox will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 o'clock.

Rev. M. D. Fuller's morning subject at the Baptist church to the Juniors is Paying a Debt and to the Seniors a New Duty. The Young People's meeting at 6:15 will be conducted by the pastor. At the vestry service at 7 the gospel will be spoken and sung by the pastor.

Rev. J. B. Aldrich will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning on Paul's Manner of Speech. Miss Isabella Robertson leads the Epworth league meeting at 6. Preaching service at 7.

The republican caucus to elect delegates to the state and congressional district convention in New Haven was held Thursday evening. Robert J. Guy was chairman and R. R. Gardner clerk.

L. M. Carpenter and William Johnston were elected delegates. The town committee appointed is L. M. Carpenter, chairman, L. G. Buckingham, Leif Johnson, John Potts, W. B. Montgomery, Joseph Roode, Charles Latham, Robert Wilbur and Louis Gingras.

The amount received at the supper at the Congregational vestry Thursday night was $65.

William McNicol has cut the wood on the island just below Norman's bridge and 60 sled loads of wood drawn by two horses have been brought down the Ashland river on the ice, the loads traveling over the channel. D. D. Tracy, who has lived in that vicinity for 60 years, says he never has known such a feat as that before on Ashland river. In every winter even at the coldest periods skaters avoid the channel.

A number of additional outrages are reported to have taken place in various parts of Ireland last night. Police sergeant Nazer was shot dead and Constable Doyle was wounded at Rathkeale, 17 miles southwest of Limerick.

Station Agent C. L. Fitch is expected to take a trip to Jacksonville, Fla., soon on a visit to his son, Herbert Fitch, and family.

Albert Patterson was a caller in New London Thursday evening.

It is reported that with the coming of good weather there will be plenty of work for the employees of the Norfolk shipyard. A large part will probably be repair work. It is expected that five menhaden steamers owned by Hays & Anderson of New York will be brought here to receive a thorough overhauling. This work was expected to start several weeks ago but was hindered by the severe weather.

The ferryboat Nathan Hale arrived here Thursday and was hailed out on the marine ways for repairs. The state of Maine has purchased the boat and will change the name to Governor

King, in honor of the first governor of Maine.

Edward Duchette of Oswego, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Duchette of the village.

Edgar Ashbey is serving on the jury of the superior court at New London.

The republican caucus was held on Thursday evening in the town hall at Pomfret Bridge.

Edward Anderson has returned from a visit at Monson, Mass.

Among children reported ill are Julia Nelson, with bronchitis, and Webster Walnwright, who has a severe cold.

LEFINGWELL

Friday evening a sleighing party from Norwich, driven by Walter Blacker of Lefingwell, spent the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest C. Lefingwell. Games and music were enjoyed throughout the evening. Later Miss Gladys Lefingwell served sandwiches, olives, cake, cookies and cocoa. All spent a delightful evening.

Those present were Misses Alice Hoar, Anna Holmes, Johanna Roessler, Margaret Kendall, Marian Fitcher and Amy Treadway, Elsie Beard and Gladys Lefingwell, also Elmer Pitcher, Herbert Lawrence, Walter Blacker, Roy Beard and Fred Lefingwell.

A. D. Matheson of Gordon Bible college, Boston, is passing a week vacation here.

Mrs. A. H. Beebe is improving slowly.

Mrs. Harry Bedat and daughter Margaret are spending a few days on Fisher's Island, guests of Mrs. Bedat's sister, Mrs. Oscar Younce.

Frank E. Baker is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest C. Lefingwell.

Mr. Matheson spent Tuesday in Hartford.

Miss Carolyn L. Beebe is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs.

H. E. Beard. Sunday morning services at 11 o'clock. The B. Y. P. U. at 2:30 p. m. will be led by Miss Myra Ellis, whose topic will be Patience and Its Rewards. 1 Co. 12: 4-7; Luke 21: 19.

Roy L. Beard was in New London Thursday.

The Congregational church is holding Lenten services morning and afternoon. The sermon at Sunday morning service will be in "The Master's Motive Our Master Motive." In the afternoon, "A New Use for Earth." Church school at 12. Considering the conditions the interest in the Sunday services is very encouraging.

The Ladies Benevolent society is getting ready for a supper this month. Pastor, Rev. William Fryling.

GOSHEN

Ralph Kenyon was taken to the Memorial hospital in New London, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Word is received that the patient is convalescing. At the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting Sunday it was voted to send him a basket of fruit, he being a member of the society, also to send a letter of cheer and sympathy from the secretary of the society, Miss Clara Gillett. Those present at the meeting added their signatures.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kenyon were in New London Wednesday to see their son Ralph at the hospital.

The gate at Cedar Swamp reservoir was raised Wednesday by the owner to let off the surplus water, there being no artificial spillway for the overflow. It was some job to get the gate open. It was frozen in with ice four feet thick.

Next week Edmund N. Manning, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Manning, leaves town for Illinois, having joined the navy.

W. H. Krosner, real estate dealer and city councilman of Akron, Ohio, refused an appointment as Akron postmaster because he said, low salaries for postal employees made it impossible to keep the service at a high standard.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Make Your Living Room Homelike

To assist you in a practical way we have assembled in attractive groups our varied displays of Living Room Furniture.

You may come here, and select, either singly or in groups, whatever you need.

The suggestions gained by viewing these showings are well worth while. May we show them to you soon?

HOURIGAN BROS.

62-66 Main St., Norwich

Finn's Block, Jewett City

—why? A man at sixty years of age is either a failure or a success. BEECHAM'S PILLS have been made for sixty years and have the largest sale of any medicine in the world! Millions use BEECHAM'S PILLS Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c, 25c.